3 Clubhouse improvements: this was discussed at length, but put on hold until after Centenary money had been allocated, in the meantime, the faulty chairs to be repaired and prices for either repairs to ladies' back door and gents' door or costing for new ones to be sought; the clubhouse garden area was discussed and a notice to be displayed asking for any willing volunteers to keep that area tidy during the summer months.

4 Any other business: a suggestion for agreeing the date of the next meeting was discussed but it was felt that all arrangements seemed to be in hand, a meeting would be held if and when necessary.
